OPEN FACED BREAKFAST SANDWICH

SERVES: 3

TOTAL TIME: 23 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

½ tablespoon olive oil
½ clove garlic, minced
25 grams sun-dried tomatoes (not packed in oil), chopped
3 large eggs
25 grams low-fat feta cheese
Coarse rock salt and freshly ground black pepper
3 slices wholegrain bread, toasted
Fresh chopped parsley (optional)

INSTRUCTIONS

In a large non-stick pan, heat the oil over medium low heat.

Add the garlic and sun dried tomatoes and cook stirring for 1-3 minutes or until the garlic is fragrant and translucent.

Crack the eggs evenly around the pan and sprinkle with feta, salt, and pepper.

Cover and cook undisturbed until the eggs are cooked to your liking.

Jiggling the pan slightly will allow you to check the yolks - runny yolks will move, fully cooked yolks will be firm.

Transfer each egg along with some of the tomato and garlic, to a piece of toast and sprinkle with parsley if desired.

“Caprese denotes a salad of mozzarella cheese, tomatoes, and fresh basil.”

CAPRESE FRITTATA

SERVES: 4

TOTAL TIME: 20 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

1 teaspoon olive oil
2 teaspoons minced garlic (or 2 large cloves garlic, minced)
250 grams baby plum tomatoes
110 grams fresh basil leaves, stems removed, finely sliced or shredded
salt to season (optional)
8 large eggs
60 millilitres unsweetened almond milk (or skim/low fat milk)
100 grams baby spinach leaves
125 grams fresh mozzarella cheese, slice thinly into rounds
2 tablespoons grated mozzarella cheese (optional)
Balsamic glaze

INSTRUCTIONS

Preheat your oven or grill to a medium heat.

Slice the tomatoes in half horizontally.

Next, heat the oil in an 8-inch non stick pan over medium-high heat. Once hot, add the garlic, stirring while it cooks for about one minute or until fragrant. Add the tomato slices and basil.

Continue cooking until the tomatoes are becoming slightly blistered and soft.

While the tomatoes are frying, whisk the eggs, milk and a pinch of salt together in a bowl until well combined. When the tomatoes are ready, transfer HALF of the tomato mixture onto a warmed plate. Cover it and set aside.

Pour the egg mixture into the remaining tomatoes in the pan, stirring the mixture for a few seconds to combine the flavours. Reduce heat to low-medium and add in the spinach leaves.

Arrange the mozzarella slices evenly over top, pressing them down slightly into the egg, and cook until the eggs are almost set (the centre should be slightly runny). This should take around eight minutes.

Sprinkle the extra cheese (if using) over the top and transfer pan into the preheated oven.

Grill until the top is golden, puffed up and cooked through. The edges and the bottom of the frittata should appear a light golden brown.

To serve, warm the remaining tomatoes and basil mixture, and spoon over the top.

Drizzle with the balsamic glaze.

CAULIFLOWER EGG CUPS

SERVES: 12

TOTAL TIME: 35 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

1 head of cauliflower, stalk and leaves removed, cut into florets
1 extra large egg, whisked
50 grams cheddar cheese, (or Mozzarella)
25 grams grated Parmesan cheese
½ teaspoon salt and pepper
½ teaspoon garlic powder, (or 1 teaspoon onion powder)
12 small-medium sized eggs
Chilli Flakes
Parsley

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 180°C/350°F/gas 4.

Lightly spray a 12-hole muffin tin with cooking oil spray or alternatively you can line them with paper liners.

Pulse the cauliflower in a blender in two batches for about 30-50 seconds until a fine “rice” type texture is formed - it’s ok if there are a few bigger pieces in there. (Be careful not to over process or the cauliflower will form a raw purée.)

Measure out 480 grams of the cauliflower rice into a microwave safe bowl and heat for about eight minutes or until soft (alternatively, lightly steam over a pot of boiling water or in a vegetable steamer until soft). Remove and allow to cool for a good five minutes before handling.

Using paper towels, an old tea towel or a cheesecloth, squeeze out as much liquid as you can until hardly any liquid is produced (It’s less messy if you wrap the cauliflower in the towel or cloth and squeeze it into a ball over the sink).

Transfer back into your bowl (make sure there’s no liquid in it), and add the whisked egg, cheeses, salt and garlic powder.

Divide the mixture into each muffin hole and firmly press them with your fingertips to create a “nest” or cup.

Bake for about 15-20 minutes or until the cheese has melted, the cups are golden and the edges are browned.

Remove from the oven, break the eggs into each cup, season with salt and pepper, return to the oven and bake for a further 10-15 minutes, or until the whites are set and the yolks are cooked to your liking.

Allow them to cool for five minutes before handling them, or they may fall apart. Lightly slide a knife around the sides of each cup, then using a fork, gently lift one side first (to make sure they’re not sticking to the bottom) and lift out of the pan.

Garnish with red chilli flakes and parsley if desired

HIGH PROTEIN VEGAN BREAKFAST BURRITO (V)

SERVES: 4

TOTAL TIME: 30 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

340 grams package firm or extra-firm tofu
1 teaspoon oil (or 1 tablespoon (15 millilitres) water)
3 teaspoons garlic (minced)
15 grams hummus
1 teaspoon chilli powder
1 teaspoon cumin
1 teaspoon nutritional yeast
¼ teaspoon sea salt
750 grams baby potatoes (chopped into bite-size pieces)
1 medium red bell pepper (thinly sliced)
1 tablespoon oil or water
135 grams chopped kale
3-4 large flour or gluten-free tortillas
200 grams ripe avocado (chopped or mashed)
Coriander
Chunky red or green salsa or hot sauce

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 200°C/400°F/gas 6.

Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. In the meantime, wrap the tofu in a clean towel and set something heavy on top - such as a heavy pan - to remove excess moisture. Then crumble with a fork into fine pieces. Set aside.

Add potatoes and red pepper to the baking sheet, drizzle with oil (or water) and spices, and toss well. Bake for 15-22 minutes or until fork tender and slightly browned adding the kale in the last 5 minutes and tossing with the other vegetables.

Heat oil or water in a large pan over medium heat. Sauté the garlic, and tofu for 7-10 minutes, until slightly brown.

In another bowl, add the hummus, chili powder, cumin, yeast, and salt. Stir, then add water until a pourable sauce is formed. Add the spice mix to the tofu and continue cooking over medium heat until slightly brown. Set aside.

Roll out a large tortilla, add portions of the roasted vegetables, scrambled tofu, avocado, coriander, and a drop of salsa.

Roll up and place seam side down (you can wrap in foil to keep warm).

Continue until all toppings are used up.

Enjoy immediately for best results. Alternatively, you can package and refrigerate these up to 4 days (or the freezer for 1 month). Just microwave or heat in the oven before eating (be sure to remove foil if heating in microwave).

“Naan, a word that just means bread in its original Persian.”

QUICK AND EASY NAAN BREAD

SERVES: 5

TOTAL TIME: 35 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

250 grams plain flour
2 teaspoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon baking powder
120 millilitres milk
2 tablespoons vegetable oil, plus extra for greasing

INSTRUCTIONS

For the dough, sift the flour, sugar, salt and baking powder into a bowl.

In another bowl, mix together the milk and oil. Make a well in the centre of the flour mixture and pour in the liquid mixture. Slowly mix together the dough by working from the centre and incorporating the flour from the edges of the “well”, to make a smooth, soft dough.

Knead well for 8–10 minutes, adding a little flour if the dough is too sticky.

Place the dough into an oiled bowl, cover with a damp tea-towel and leave in a warm place for 10–15 minutes.

Form the dough into five balls.

Preheat the grill to medium and place a heavy baking sheet on the upper shelf of the grill to heat.

Roll the dough balls out quite thinly and pull into a teardrop shape (this isn’t essential but makes them look authentic). Sprinkle over your chosen topping and press into the surface of the dough.

Place the naans onto the hot baking sheet and grill for 1–2 minutes, or until lightly browned.

Brush with butter and serve hot.

BLACK BEAN CHOCOLATE PROTEIN TRUFFLES

SERVES: 12

TOTAL TIME: 40 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

400 gram tin low-sodium or no salt added organic black beans, rinsed and drained, and patted dry
1 scoop chocolate protein powder of choice
1 ½ tablespoons coconut oil, plus 1 teaspoon for chocolate coating
2 tablespoons pure maple syrup
5 tablespoons good-quality unsweetened cocoa powder
100 grams good quality chocolate, chopped
Toppings, if desired: sprinkles, flaked coconut, and/or chopped nuts

INSTRUCTIONS

Place black beans, 1 ½ tablespoons coconut oil, and maple syrup in large bowl of food processor; process until very smooth in consistency. You may need to occasionally scrape the mix from the sides.

Slowly add in cocoa powder and chocolate protein powder (if desired). Taste and add more cocoa powder if necessary.

If you decide not to add in protein powder, simply replace with about 3 more tablespoons of cocoa powder or until batter tastes chocolatey enough to your liking.

Place the truffle batter in the fridge for about 20 minutes. Once chilled remove from the fridge and form the batter into 12 even dough balls; roll them with your hands to form a ball (you can use latex gloves if you don't want messy hands)

Place the formed truffles on a baking tray lined with parchment paper and place back in fridge while you prepare the chocolate coating:

Heat the chocolate and 1 teaspoon coconut oil in small saucepan on very low. Stir every so often until chocolate has melted and is smooth.

Remove from heat.

Lift each truffle with a fork or toothpick and dip into the chocolate mixture to coat - they don't have to be perfect!

Roll in sprinkles, nuts or coconut if desired.

Place back on parchment paper and return to the fridge for ten minutes.

Once chilled, enjoy these delicious sweet treats!
